A note from the Executive Director

Br. Ronald Gallagher, FSC, Ph.D.

"I am excited and humbled to join Bethlehem University Foundation as the new Executive Director. I would like to extend my gratitude to you for your continued interest in and much needed support for Bethlehem University through this Foundation. As a Christian Brother, teacher, and administrator for over 50 years I have gained invaluable experience and expertise that I am honored to bring to the Foundation. I hope to meet you and extend my gratitude in person, but until then please know of my prayers for you and your families."

Bethlehem University Foundation News:

The Foundation raised $206,000 this Christmas season thanks to generous donors like you!

Student Spotlight • Bethlehem University

Hanna Stephan

Physics: Second year student

"Ever since I entered the gates of Bethlehem University, I was swamped with the amount of opportunity its society had to offer. My experience at Bethlehem University is showing me that there is no boundary to what I can achieve and is preparing me to move forward in my field of study."

Guy J. Di Spigno

Licensed Clinical Psychologist & President of Executive Synergies

"After visiting the University and following up with faculty (and later through the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre on video with students and faculty), we have come to look at Bethlehem University as the best hope for peace and understanding in the Holy Land as well as providing students with a great academic education."
